62ND TRADITIONAL COWS' BALL

Ukanc, Bohinj

15 September 2019

The summer season in Slovenia's alpine region officially ends in mid-September with one of the country's most unique traditional festivals Cow's Ball. Held in Bohinj since 1954, the event celebrates the return of local shepherds and their cattle to the valley after a summer of grazing high up in the pastures of the Julian Alps. The all-day party begins in the morning with folk music, brass bands, an accordion orchestra, folklore performances and all manner of other costumed revellers competing for the eyes and ears of the crowd.

LJUBLJANA. HISTORY. CITY.

Ljubljana
Permanent exhibition

The permanent exhibition at the City Museum of Ljubljana encapsulates the rich history of the Ljubljana area. From the 40,000-year-old wooden tip used by a Neanderthal to the barricades on the streets of Ljubljana during the Slovenian war for independence; from the mysterious deformities to the wheelchair used by the prominent benefactor, Žiga Zois and barbed wire that surrounded the city in World War II. Visit the exhibition and find your own favourite time in Ljubljana's history!

DAYS OF NATIONAL COSTUMES AND CLOTHING HERITAGE

Kamnik
5 September - 8 September 2019

Every September, tradition joins forces with ethnography, culture and entertainment. The Days of National Costumes and Clothing Heritage are considered to be the biggest ethnological festival in Slovenia priding itself on a more than 40-year tradition. The beginnings of the event date back into 1966 when Kamnik citizens organized the Day of National Costumes. In the first year already, a great number of educational societies and individuals, both from Kamnik and its surroundings, attended the event.
