BUREK OLIMPIJA

Slovenska 58, Rimska cesta 13, Celovška cesta 117a, 1000 Ljubljana

Tel: +386 31 386 687 | info@burekolimpija.si | www.burekolimpija.si | Open: Non stop

This tiny takeaway at Bavarski Dvor is a true Ljubljana institution, and has been serving up piping hot Serbian-style burek almost literally non-stop, around the clock since the 1970s - some ten million pieces in total! It was the runaway winner of our inaugural Battle of the Burek competition way back in 2010, and consistently ranks as a local favourite year in and year out. No night out on the town is complete without a pre- or post-club stop here, so don't be surprised to see a queue at four in the morning. And while they renovated not too long ago, the menu and prices have thankfully stayed the same. A must-try on any visit to Ljubljana!

BILJARDNA HIŠA LJUBLJANA

Slovenska 58, Ljubljana | Tel: +386 1 235 51 71
www.biljardna-hisa.com | biljardnahisa@gmail.com
Open 09:00 - 01:00. Sat, Sun 10:00 - 01:00

Ljubljana's most popular, our personal favourite and the largest pool hall in Europe is located in the center of town, on Slovenska Cesta, underneath the Bavarski Dvor business district. The premises are divided into several different areas, with an American style diner in front, another large dining and bar area further back that opens into an actual pool hall. In addition to 28 pool tables there are also dart boards, pinball machines, foosball table, air hockey table and an old school arcade machine.

FANY & MARY

Petkovškovo Nabrežje 19, 1000 Ljubljana

Tel. +386 8 383 89 26

Open 08:00 - 00:00, Sun 09:00 - 01:00.

Fany & Mary have a name and logo that hints at something über trendy, in fact it's much more a down to earth family friendly type of place with good service, fair prices and generous portions you won't hear us complaining about. Occupying prime promenade real estate in front of Mesarski Most (Butcher's bridge) it is a great outdoor dining spot whilst inside is a cosier affair. Fany & Mary's menu features a range of international classics including pizzas, salads and some very tasty burgers, which pair perfectly with the fine selection of beers on offer.

Open 11:00-00:00, Sat 12:00-00:00, Sun 12:00-22:00

One of Ljubljana's more atmospheric Bosnian restaurants occupies the subterranean premises of a former jazz club and sports an interior somewhat reminiscent of a pub - walls plastered with memorabilia from the 1984 Winter Olympics, arched brick ceilings and old black and white Yugoslav tourist videos playing on a projection screen. The menu has a selection of various grilled dishes and savoury Bosnian pies to choose from, with the requisite Baklava and traditional Turkish coffee for dessert. Find it down the stairs just next to Hotel Slon at the corner of Slovenska Cesta and the small Nazorjeva pedestrian street.

Open: Monday – Saturday 9:30 - 19:30.

Butik lePotica is the only bakery in Ljubljana to specialise in baking potica, the most famous Slovenian cake. All poticas are made by hand in their home bakery on the outskirts of Ljubljana using traditional recipes and natural ingredients. They are best known for their lovely miniature poticas in various flavours, which present the taste of Slovenian tradition in a few bites. Alongside freshly baked mini poticas and good coffee to-go, you can also find traditional baking pans, cookbooks, gifts and souvenirs, all related to potica.

BARKA LJUBLJANICA

Breg 1, Ljubljana | Tel. + 386 41 386 945

info@barka-ljubljnica.si

A trip to Ljubljana is not a trip without a boat tour crossing the city on the river Ljubljanica. Even locals agree that one can get a different view of the city from a river vantage point. You can catch some of the most beautiful details otherwise hidden from the city's streets. You're welcome on the first electric handmade wooden boat operated by the Lakercraft team. The standard boat ride takes 50 minutes. Departures are scheduled every hour on the hour, ensuring convenient time planning for visitors and locals alike. Private rides can also be arranged, offering a unique way to impress business clients or have an unforgettable romantic evening. The Ljubljanica boat is a 10 meters long flat-bottomed vessel, constructed of solid larch and oak wood that can accommodate up to 48 passengers.
