KAMNIK

www.visitkarnnik.com • tic@visitkarnnik.com
+386 31 388 324

Kamnik, one of Slovenia's most beautiful medieval towns, lies in the embrace of the Kamnik–Savinja Alps. Once the capital of the Carniola region, it enchants visitors with its rich architectural heritage, legends of Veronika from Mali Grad, and panoramic views from Stari Grad. The town offers unique experiences – from the shepherd tradition on Velika Planina, tasting the traditional Trnič cheese and local craft beers, to relaxing in new hotel in Terme Snovik and Arboretum Volčji Potok. Kamnik becomes especially vibrant in September during the Days of National Costumes, Slovenia's largest ethnological festival. Kamnik combines history, nature, gastronomy, and authentic experiences.
